
Peacekeeping Training Programme

e-Learning Courses Calendar

July - December 2011

Knowledge to lead

unitar

United Nations Institute for Training and Research

2011 Courses Calendar

July – December

Applications for the courses are now accepted. For more information on the courses and how to apply, please visit: www.unitar.org/event

Summer

18 July – 12 August

Introduction to Peace Operations
The goal of the course is to review the notion of peace operations, providing an overview of the framework in which they are developed, of their structure, and of the roles and responsibilities of the different actors involved.

Deadline for registration | 13 July 2011

18 July – 12 August

Transitional Justice and Peacebuilding
The goal of the course is to present the concept of transitional justice in peacebuilding contexts, providing a holistic overview of current strategies and mechanisms, their nature and practical application, and the challenges and lessons learned that various actors may encounter and apply when participating in peace operations in post-conflict settings.

Deadline for registration | 13 July 2011

18 July – 12 August

Understanding Conflict and Conflict Analysis
The goal of the course is to provide participants with an overview of the key elements of conflict analysis and how these can be integrated into the context of pre-intervention assessment and planning for a peace operation.

Deadline for registration | 13 July 2011

01 – 26 August

Leadership, Team Work and Team Management
The general objective of the course is to provide you with an overview of leadership, team building, and problem diagnosing and problem solving techniques, applicable to the specific context of a peace operation.

Deadline for registration | 27 July 2011

01 – 26 August

Protection from Sexual Violence, Exploitation and Abuses
This course introduces the main concepts, normative frameworks and laws that regulate sexual behavior in contexts where peace missions operate, and offers real life situations to reflect on the nature, implications and ways to prevent such violations from occurring.

Deadline for registration | 27 July 2011

22 August – 16 September

Conflict Resolution
The course outlines traditional and alternative techniques on conflict and conflict resolution. Inventories of existing conflict theories, typologies and practices are conducted. Attention is focused on traditional methods of conflict resolution (international law, diplomacy, top-negotiations, military force etc.) but alternative conflict resolution aspects are discussed (i.e. non-conventional conflict resolution strategies and civil societal strategies).

Deadline for registration | 17 August 2011

Autumn

05 – 30 September

Protection of Civilians in Peace Operations
The course seeks to advance a better understanding of the theoretical and practical framework for the protection of civilians in peace operations.

Deadline for registration | 31 August 2011

05 – 30 September

Human Security in the Practice of Peace Operations
The goal of this course is to present the concept of human security in terms of an organizing standard and to introduce the principles that inform the planning, implementation and evaluation of human security-oriented interventions in conflict and post-conflict settings.

Deadline for registration | 31 August 2011

05 – 30 September

Gender, Leadership and Peacebuilding
The overall objective of this course is to integrate a gender perspective into traditional and modern concepts of security and examine how gender constructs impact the lives of groups of men and women.

Deadline for registration | 31 August 2011

03 – 28 October

Natural Resources Management in Post-Conflict Countries
The course focuses on how resouces can be managed to eliminate conflict risks and potential obstacles to peace, and draws attention to how natural resources management can support peacekeeping, broader peacebuilding interventions, confidence-building mesaures and overall state building.

Deadline for registration | 28 September 2011

03 – 28 October

Electoral Security Framework

Deadline for registration | 28 September 2011

03 – 28 October

Introduction aux Opérations de Paix
La formation vise à revoir la notion d'opérations de paix, à offrir un aperçu du cadre dans lequel elles sont élaborées, de leur structure et des rôles et responsabilités des différents acteurs impliqués.

Deadline for registration | 28 September 2011

03 – 28 October

Justice Transitionelle et Consilidation de la Paix
L'objectif de cette formation est de présenter le concept de justice transitionnelle dans le cadre de la consolidation de la paix, en fournissant un aperçu holistique des stratégies et des mécanismes actuels, de leur nature et de leur application pratique, et des défis rencontrés et des enseignements tirés et mis à profit par différents acteurs lors de leur participation à des opérations de paix dans des environnements d'après-conflit.

Deadline for registration | 28 September 2011

03 – 28 October

Analyse des Conflits
La formation a pour but de fournir aux participants un aperçu des éléments clés de l'analyse des conflits et de la façon dont ceux-ci peuvent être intégrés dans le contexte d'une évaluation et d'une planification de pré-intervention pour une opération de paix.

Deadline for registration | 28 September 2011

Winter

31 October – 26 November

Introduction to Peace Operations
The goal of the course is to review the notion of peace operations, providing an overview of the framework in which they are developed, of their structure, and of the roles and responsibilities of the different actors involved.

Deadline for registration | 26 October 2011

31 October – 26 November

Transitional Justice and Peacebuilding
The goal of the course is to present the concept of transitional justice in peacebuilding contexts, providing a holistic overview of current strategies and mechanisms, their nature and practical application, and the challenges and lessons learned that various actors may encounter and apply when participating in peace operations in post-conflict settings.

Deadline for registration | 26 October 2011

31 October – 26 November

Understanding Conflict and Conflict Analysis
The goal of the course is to provide participants with an overview of the key elements of conflict analysis and how these can be integrated into the context of pre-intervention assessment and planning for a peace operation.

Deadline for registration | 26 October 2011

21 Noveber – 16 December

Conflict Resolution
The course outlines traditional and alternative techniques on conflict and conflict resolution. Inventories of existing conflict theories, typologies and practices are conducted. Attention is focused on traditional methods of conflict resolution (international law, diplomacy, top-negotiations, military force etc.) but alternative conflict resolution aspects are discussed (i.e. non-conventional conflict resolution strategies and civil societal strategies).

Deadline for registration | 16 December 2011

21 Noveber – 16 December

Leadership, Team Work and Team Management
The general objective of the course is to provide you with an overview of leadership, team building, and problem diagnosing and problem solving techniques, applicable to the specific context of a peace operation.

Deadline for registration | 16 December 2011

21 Noveber – 16 December

Protection of Civilians in Peace Operations
The course seeks to advance a better understanding of the theoretical and practical framework for the protection of civilians in peace operations.

Deadline for registration | 16 December 2011

United Nations Institute for Training and Research
Peacekeeping Training Programme
www.unitar.org/ptp
ptp@unitar.org