

Realizing the Future We Want - QCPR Training Series Module 3: Funding the UN operational activities for development and financing the SDG

People

Plazo: Cerrado

Tipo:	Seminar
Ubicación:	New York, United States
Fecha:	2 Jul 2020
Duración del evento:	1 Días
Área del programa:	Multilateral Diplomacy, General Assembly
Público Objetivo Específico:	Capacitación diplomática
Sitio web:	http://www.unitar.org/event/new-york
Precio:	Sin cargo
Correo Electrónico del Centro de Coordinación del Evento:	nyo@unitar.org

ANTECEDENTES

- The Quadrennial Comprehensive Policy Review (QCPR) and the longer-term positioning of the UN development system
- This module would discuss the challenges and opportunities of the Decade of Action and explain the opportunities that the QCPR process offers to Member States to guide, UN operational activities for development in the next 4 years of implementation of the 2030 Agenda.

OBJETIVOS DEL EVENTO

This module would review and discuss the latest trends and key issues around funding of the UN's operational activities for development, provide background and highlights on the Funding Compact's commitments, which emphasizes greater transparency and accountability on the part of the system in exchange for higher quality and more predictable resources, and exchange views on the role of the UN development system in terms of supporting countries to finance the SDGs.

CONTENIDO Y ESTRUCTURA

This module would review and discuss the latest trends and key issues around funding of the UN's operational activities for development, provide background and highlights on the Funding Compact's commitments, which emphasizes greater transparency and accountability on the part of the system in exchange for higher quality and more predictable resources, and exchange views on the role of the UN development system in terms of supporting countries to finance the SDGs.

Source URL