BACKGROUND

The unique event is organized under the auspices of the UN General Assembly Resolution 65/5, which establishes the World Interfaith Harmony Week and recognizes “...the imperative need for dialogue among different faiths and religions to enhance mutual understanding, harmony and cooperation among people”.

This year’s Dialogue will address how faith and faith-based organizations work at a time when the world confronts the unprecedented Coronavirus pandemic.

EVENT OBJECTIVES

Our discussion will provide an opportunity to highlight the principles and values of solidarity, inclusiveness and tolerance, and will also discuss faith-based good practices and their implementation, as a pathway to the future, while we rebuild a better world.

CONTENT AND STRUCTURE
This event will take place in the form of an online roundtable.

TARGETED AUDIENCE

The event is open to all.
