BACKGROUND

UNITAR and the Institute for Responsible Leadership (IRL) have joined forces again for this special webinar entitled "Responsible leadership in schools and colleges", which will explore the importance of responsible leadership within educational settings.

EVENT OBJECTIVES

The panel consists of speakers who will discuss education and the role of leadership internationally. Leadership in educational settings is essential, both during and after Covid, to ensure that children and young people are supported to regain some of the education lost due to the pandemic. This is also a time for opportunity and innovation to pave the way to improve education for all post-Covid.

TARGETED AUDIENCE

This webinar is open to all.
