BACKGROUND

Since 16 November 2020, Global Foundation for the Performing Arts (GFPA) has established a mutually beneficial partnership with UNITAR. Last year, the two entities presented the annual conference: The Sustainable Development of Classical Music - Securing the Future of Performance. This year, the collaboration continues. In March, GFPA is launching a two-day, two-session webinar series to discuss topics directly related to Education (SDG4), Economic growth and employment (SDG8), Sustainable Communities (SDG11) and Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions (SDG16).

In reference to GFPA’s extensive network in arts. Panelists, artists, and leaders from a wide range of related communities will present their experience and expectations on how to advance cultural collaborations and gender equalities during this unprecedented time.
