BACKGROUND

The United Nations Institute for Training and Research's (UNITAR) Online Diploma in Multilateral Diplomacy offers a unique opportunity for both students wanting to pursue a career in international relations, and professionals working in international and regional organizations as well as governmental and non-governmental institutions, to expand their knowledge on international affairs and strengthen their capacities in the field of multilateral diplomacy.

Using internet-based training, UNITAR brings participants and trainers together in a unique virtual learning environment. All courses build on UNITAR's wealth of experience in designing and implementing training workshops on diplomacy and multilateral affairs at the country and regional levels. e-Learning provides specific advantages for geographically and time constrained individuals to obtain valuable information for their day-to-day operations and future projects.

EVENT OBJECTIVES

After completing the Diploma, students should be able to :

- Demonstrate a comprehensive, substantive and practical knowledge of the current challenges in international affairs and diplomacy;
- Perform in both bilateral and multilateral working environments with increased confidence;
- Develop analytical skills and critical thinking;
- Advance their career through the acquisition of skills that are highly valued in an international working environment

CONTENT AND STRUCTURE

In order to be awarded the Online Diploma, participants are required to participate and successfully complete 4 out of 5 online courses offered by UNITAR's Multilateral Diplomacy Programme Unit from September 2021 to June 2022 and submit a Final Research Paper by 30 June 2022.

The e-Learning courses the students can choose from are:

- Cosmopolitan Communication (01 November - 28 November 2021)
- The Art of Speechwriting (14 February - 6 March 2022)
- Diplomacy 4.0 (11 April - 22 May 2022)
- Overcoming Negotiation Deadlocks (23 May - 19 June 2022)
- United Nations Protocol (23 May - 19 June 2022)

Kindly note that some course dates might change.

All courses last between 4 to 6 weeks. The average workload for an individual course is 5 - 8 study hours per week.

The final requirement to obtain the Online Diploma in Multilateral Diplomacy will be the submission of a research paper of between 3,000 and 5,000 words.

METHODOLOGY

e-Learning: The Diploma is internet-based. Courses are moderated by senior international experts, and place an emphasis on online discussions and self-paced learning.

The courses will consist of the following components:

- (1) Compulsory and optional reading material, intended to teach the basic concepts and principles of the lesson's subject-matter;
- (2) Multimedia and external links to additional books, articles, documents, and websites related to the lessons;
- (3) Quizzes and case studies;
- (4) Community Discussion Boards;
- (5) Collaborative learning tools such as simulation exercises, webinars and chats

TARGETED AUDIENCE

The Online Diploma is designed for government officials, diplomats, private sector specialists, practitioners in the international arena, academics, students or any interested participants.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

If you register for the online diploma, you are not required to register for the separate e-Learning courses. Instead, please send us an email at mdp-elearning@unitar.org before the start of an e-Learning course to confirm that you would like to take the course as part of the Diploma.
